Guidelines & Suggestions:

Program Description - This should be 1 page or less. To distinguish the program, you may choose to describe why the program is successful or how it is unique.

Supporting Documentation – The judges will use this documentation to verify the impact of the program, and learn more about it. You may choose to include statistics about the program or community, press releases, articles, or anything else that will illustrate the positive impact of the program. Please clearly mark any confidential documentation as such at the top of each page, and this information will be kept strictly confidential.
